Claim for Compensation for Funeral Expenses and/or Entitlements Following Death for Dependants of Deceased Members and Former Members of the Australian Defence Force

Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation (Defence-related Claims) Act 1988 (DRCA)

Who should complete this form?

- Persons who were dependants of a member or former member of the Australian Defence Force (ADF) at the time of that person's death, where the person died as a result of a pre 1 July 2004 defence-related injury or disease; and/or
- persons who are the Legal Representative of a dependant of a member or former member of the ADF who died as a result of a pre 1 July 2004 defence-related injury or disease e.g. a dependant's solicitor; and/or
- persons who have paid the cost of the funeral or who carried out the funeral (where that cost has not been paid) of a member or former member of the Australian Defence Force (ADF) where the person died as a result of pre 1 July 2004 defence-related injury or disease.

NB: This form should not be used for applicants of War Widow(er)s pension under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (VEA).

Definition of dependant

Dependant means a person who was wholly or partly dependent on the deceased for economic support at the date of the deceased's death and who was, immediately before the death, in one of the following relationships with the deceased:

- husband or wife;
- de facto partner, being a person who was in either a same-sex or opposite-sex relationship with another person which is registered under a prescribed law of a State or Territory. For a list of those laws, please contact the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA);
- de facto partner, being a person who was in a relationship with another person that was not registered, but that was either a same-sex or opposite-sex relationship as a couple;
- father, mother, step-father, step-mother, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandfather, grandmother, son, daughter, step-son, step-daughter, grandson, grand-daughter, brother, sister, half-brother or half-sister of the deceased. These terms apply equally to heterosexual and same-sex relationships e.g.
 - the parents of the partner of a person in a same-sex relationship are included in the term 'father-in-law' and 'mother-in-law';
 - the son or daughter of the partner of a person in a same-sex relationship is the son or daughter of the person.
- where the deceased was a member of the Aboriginal race of Australia or a descendant of indigenous inhabitants of the Torres Strait Islands - a person who is or was recognised as the deceased's husband or wife by the custom prevailing in the tribe or group to which the deceased belonged.
- a person in relation to whom the deceased stood in the position of a parent or who stood in the position of a parent to the deceased.

Dependent for economic support

A spouse, partner or prescribed child (who is under 16, or is 16 or more but under 25 and is undertaking full-time education, and is not ordinarily in employment or engaged in work on his or her own account) who was, immediately before the death, living with the deceased is automatically taken to have been wholly economically dependent on the deceased at the date of death.

A dependant who would have been wholly or partly dependent but for an incapacity of the deceased that resulted from an injury related to their defence service is taken to have been so dependent on the deceased at the date of death.

Establishing dependency

Possible dependants (other than a spouse, partner or prescribed child who is taken to have been wholly dependent) must demonstrate dependency for economic support by providing all relevant information such as:

- bank statements;
- other records;
- proof of regular support payments by the deceased for economic support; and/or
- court orders which demonstrate the deceased's legal liability to make regular payments.

Please provide as much evidence of dependency as possible when submitting this claim. The economic link must be in the nature of support and reliance by the dependant. It is not sufficient that the deceased made sporadic gifts of money where they could not be relied on for continuous sustenance.

This form asks about

- The personal details of the person(s) claiming benefits; and
- details of the deceased member.

Completing this form

The information you give should be as complete as possible so that your claim is not delayed. Note that all documents required must be attached for your claim to proceed. Where you are asked to provide copies of documents, you must either provide certified copies or original documents which can be sighted and verified by a DVA officer before being returned to you by registered post.

Please use a black or blue pen and tick boxes as appropriate.

Not all questions will apply to you in which case you will be directed to skip to the next relevant one. If you do not have enough space to answer a question, use a separate piece of paper. You are responsible for providing evidence to support your claim. Any such evidence should be included.

If you cannot answer all the questions, fill in as much as you can and get in touch with DVA in your State who will help you.

Make sure you:

- Sign the declaration that the information given on the form is correct at Section I.
- Attach certified copies of the death certificate, marriage certificate or evidence of the registration of your relationship (where relevant) and the birth certificate for any children.
- Attach relevant medical documents.

Important information

The information sought on this form is required to assess eligibility for a benefit under the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation (Defence-related Claims) Act 1988 (DRCA). Dependants of a member of the Australian Defence Force who had service on or after 1 July 2004 may be eligible for benefit under the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004. In such cases form D2053 "Claim for Compensation for Dependants of Deceased members and Former members" should be completed or D2663 "Claim for Pension by a Widow, Widower or other Dependant of a Deceased Veteran" should eligibility be under the VEA.

Please be aware that should this claim be accepted, Tax File Number will be required.

Information on DVA's collection and use of Tax File numbers can be found at:

<https://www.dva.gov.au/about-dva/accountability-and-reporting/your-tax-file-number>

Proving your identity to DVA

When you lodge a claim with DVA, you must show documents from Category A and B to prove your identity. These must be original documents or true and certified copies (see "Who can certify copies of documents" on DVA Fact Sheet DVA06 - Proving your identity to DVA).

Privacy notice

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Your personal information may be collected by the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) for the delivery of government programs for war veterans, members of the Australian Defence Force, members of the Australian Federal Police and their dependants.

Read more: How DVA manages personal information

Giving false or misleading information is a serious offence.

If any details you give in this claim change, you must tell the Department within 21 days.

If you need more information, please contact DVA: 1800 555 254
