This form is only to be completed by war widows/widowers and veterans of the Australian Defence Forces who may transfer from Home and Community Care (HACC) services to Veterans' Home Care.

From January 2001, war widows/widowers and veterans of the Australian Defence Forces who are Gold or White Repatriation health card holders are able to choose to transfer from the Australian/State/Territory Governments' Home and Community Care program and receive services under the new Veterans' Home Care Program.

The information on this form will enable the Department of Veterans' Affairs and your HACC service provider to determine your eligibility to be assessed for Veterans' Home Care services and assist you to transfer to Veterans' Home Care, if you choose to do so.

- If your HACC service provider is contracted to provide Veterans' Home Care services, you may be able to continue to receive services from that provider.
- If your HACC service provider is not contracted to provide Veterans' Home Care services, the Department will arrange services for you through a new Veterans' Home Care provider.

By completing this form you are not under any obligation to transfer to Veterans' Home Care.

Once this information is disclosed to the Department, some of the information may be provided to Veterans' Home Care Regional Agencies and home care service providers so that you can be provided with home care services.
