Declaration and Authorisation to release personal information

I would like to receive treatment for a mental health condition funded by the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

I declare that I am the person named in the application and that the answers given by me are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I authorise the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) to collect:

- my service details from the Department of Defence; and
- my medical and other information relevant to determining whether I am diagnosed with a mental condition from any medical practitioner, hospital, clinic, health service provider, insurance company, Centrelink, the Department of Defence or other organisation, as required.

I consent to the release of my personal information by the above third parties and understand that this form may be used by DVA to access my medical records.

I understand that if I am serving member at the time of my application, DVA will need to advise the Department of Defence about my application for treatment under Non-Liability Health Care arrangements and I consent to this occurring.
