

Claim for Pension by a Widow, Widower or other Dependant of a Deceased Veteran

A claim may be made by:

- a widow
- a widower
- another dependant
- another person on behalf of the widow, widower or other dependant.

Claims for children aged less than 18 years must be made by the child's parent or guardian, or by another person authorised by the parent or guardian. The claim will be granted if the veteran's death is determined to have been related to service.

Important information

The information sought on this form is required to assess your eligibility for a benefit under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986. The Act requires that a claim be made on this form which has been approved by the Repatriation Commission. Dependants of a member of the Australian Defence Force who had service on or after 1 July 2004 may be eligible for benefit under the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004. In such cases form D2053 "Claim for Compensation for Dependants of Deceased Members and Former Members" should be completed.

Repatriation Medical Authority and Statements of Principles

Your claim will be decided using current medical evidence and Statements of Principles (if issued), for the cause(s) of death you have claimed as being service related. Statements of Principles have now been issued for a large number of causes of death.

Statements of Principles consist of up-to-date, world-wide medical information and opinion on the causes of death for which they are issued. Statements of Principles are issued by the Repatriation Medical Authority. Where the cause of death is covered by a Statement of Principle, it is binding on all parties.

If the cause of the veteran's death is not covered in the Statements of Principles, the claim will be determined on the basis of the best medical and scientific information and opinion available.

Assistance from ex-service organisations

You are strongly encouraged to seek the assistance of Legacy or another ex-service organisation of your choice in lodging this claim. Legacy or another ex-service organisation should be able to provide you with advice on how the factors identified in the Statements of Principles may apply in this case. Contact telephone numbers for these organisations can be found in local telephone directories or by contacting the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) office in your State.

Assistance from DVA

DVA staff can also help you to complete this form.

NOTE: If the veteran was an ex-Prisoner-of-War, or was receiving disability pension at the Special Rate (TPI), Temporary Special Rate (TTI), Intermediate Rate (IR) or the Extreme Disablement Adjustment (EDA) at the time of death, you should contact the Department of Veterans' Affairs for advice before proceeding to complete this form, as a formal claim may not be required.

Proving your identity to DVA

When lodging a new claim for Income Support and Compensation payments under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986, the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation (Defence-related Claims) Act 1988 or the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004, before your claim can be finalised you may be required to show DVA documents that prove your identity. You must show original documents or copies that are certified as true copies of the originals. You will be contacted if it is necessary to provide these documents.

Further information about proving your identity to DVA is in the Fact Sheet, DVA06 "Proving your identity to DVA".

Applicants in payment prior to 4 January 2005 have already satisfied DVA's proof of identity requirements and do not need to again.

Privacy notice

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Your personal information may be collected by the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) for the delivery of government programs for war veterans, members of the Australian Defence Force, members of the Australian Federal Police and their dependants.

Read more: How DVA manages personal information

ISS is a means-tested payment that is paid by DVA to eligible war widows and widowers in addition to their war widow's pension or MRCA benefits. It was introduced to enable them to receive all their payments from DVA.

There is no age restriction on eligibility for ISS.

ISS may be granted on the basis of invalidity. Invalidity ISS paid to a person who is under age pension age is non-taxable income. Age pension age for a male is 65 years of age. Age pension age for a female is being raised by six months every two years so that by 1 January 2014, female and male qualifying ages will be the same.

Female's date of birth	Age pension age
Before 1 July 1947	64
1 July 1947 to 31 December 1948	64.5
1 January 1949 and later	65

To be eligible for invalidity ISS you must be permanently incapacitated for work.

The criteria for permanent incapacity are:

A requirement for ISS is that you are an Australian resident and physically in Australia when you lodge your claim.
