Are you interested in Australia's wartime history?

Are you searching for information about a family member who served in Australia's armed forces or merchant navy during World War 2?

The World War 2 Nominal Roll website can assist you.

The Nominal Roll commemorates some one million men and women who served in Australia's armed forces or merchant navy during World War 2. The website allows worldwide access to an index of information collected from their service records.

The Nominal Roll is a Federal Government initiative, administered by the Commonwealth Department of Veterans' Affairs.
